

SIETAR BC CONSTITUTION

1. The name of the society is

The International Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research, British Columbia Chapter.

2. The purpose(s) of the society is (are)

a) The purposes of the society are to promote cooperative interactions and effective communication among peoples of diverse cultures, races and ethnic groups;

b) to encourage the development and application of knowledge, values and skills which enable effective intercultural interracial and interethnic interactions at the individual, group, organization and community levels;

c) to promote the goals of the International Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research in this region;

d) to raise intercultural awareness at the individual, group, organizational and community level and to celebrate the diverse ethnic origins of the people living in this geographical area;

e) to encourage and develop knowledge, skills, and values to facilitate intercultural interactions in the community;

f) to raise awareness of the intercultural professions and support those who practice them, providing opportunity for professional development and experience and leadership in the standards of ethical service, as well as social relationships;

g) to promote cooperative interaction and build a network among members to provide mutual support and exchange of information locally, regionally, nationally and internationally.