

SIETAR BC SOCIETY FOR INTERCULTURAL EDUCATION, TRAINING AND RESEARCH

SIETAR BC is seeking capable and interested individuals to join its Board of Directors.

Mission

Committed to intercultural engagement, communication and agility, SIETAR BC aims to increase mutually supportive interaction between individuals locally and globally. To do so, SIETAR offers programs, workshops, and events to encourage and provide all individuals an opportunity to:

- raise their awareness and understanding of how culture affects education, policy-making and business
- develop their knowledge, values and skills
- learn and build effective intercultural, racial and ethnic communication and relations
- connect with SIETAR members and global Intercultural Professionals

Board structure and programming

SIETAR BC currently has a board of 11 dedicated intercultural professionals. Monthly meetings are held online and once annually in person (public health guidelines permitting). Each year, SIETAR BC hosts 4 to 6 activities (such as workshops/conferences) as well as an AGM. SIETAR BC is also part of a family of world wide SIETAR organizations who work collaboratively with professional development of their members. SIETAR BC has a solid financial status, a clear mission, and committed volunteers.

Why join us?

Sitting on any board offers opportunities for professional development and networking. Board directorships also offer specific skill development. In addition to these opportunities, SIETAR BC offers its board members the unique opportunity to volunteer with a culturally, academically and geographically diverse team of highly committed people with a clearly defined mission.
